The research report titled Investment Opportunities In India: Sanitary Napkin Project (Reasons for Investment, Core Project Financials, Potential Buyers, Market Size & Analysis) released by Niir Project Consultancy Services aims at providing all the critical data required by any entrepreneur vying to venture into sanitary napkin segment in India.
While expanding a current business or while venturing into new business, entrepreneurs are often faced with the dilemma of zeroing in on a suitable product/line. And before diversifying/venturing into any product, they wish to study the following aspects of the identified product:
• Good Present/Future Demand
• Export-Import Market Potential
• Raw Material & Manpower Availability
• Project Costs and Payback Period
We at NPCS, through our reliable expertise in the project consultancy and market research field, have identified a project that satisfies all the above mentioned requirements and has high growth potential in the Indian markets. The identified project is ‘Sanitary Napkins’ and through this report we aim to help you make sound and informed business decision.
The report contains all the data which will help him find answers to questions like:
• Why I should invest in sanitary napkin project?
• Who are the customers of the product?
• What will drive the growth of the product?
• What are the costs involved?
• What will be the market potential?
The report begins by providing a detailed overview of the product (Sanitary napkins) along with its classification and characteristics to help enhance the knowledge of the entrepreneur about the product. The report then identifies the target customer of sanitary napkins in India and provides forecasts of key consumer data. It further helps in making sound investment decision by listing and then elaborating on factors that will contribute to the growth of sanitary napkin consumption in India. It also includes graphical representation and forecasts of key data discussed in the above mentioned segment. Additionally, report talks about the foreign trade of sanitary napkins in India along with the list of top importing and top exporting countries. The report highlights the growth potential of the sector by presenting past market size data coupled with forecasts of the same till 2017. Details of key players in the segment along with recent developments in the sector are listed in the report which form an important part of the business decision.

The report then turns the limelight to areas like current legislation in the sector and taxation which are of prime importance to any business venture. The industry is blessed with high government support and recent reduction in the taxes. In the next segment, the report provides project financials of a model project with specified plant capacity. It enumerates project information like raw materials required for manufacturing sanitary napkins, manufacturing process, list of machinery and basic project financials. Project financials like plant capacity, costs involved in setting up of project, working capital requirements, projected revenue and profit are listed in the report.
Sanitary napkin industry has huge business potential in India mainly on account of appallingly low penetration levels and high government support to the sector.
